Aiming higher. More than healthcare

RANZCOG 2023 Annual Scientific Meeting

Call for Abstracts

Abstracts are invited for Free Communication (Oral), Three Minute Thesis (Oral), Static Poster and e-Poster presentations for the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Obstetricians 2023 Annual Scientific Meeting being held 30 October – 1 November 2023 at PCEC, Perth.

Abstracts are welcome on any of the areas of interest listed below; papers must not have been published elsewhere before being presented at the 2023 Annual Scientific Meeting.

The deadline for abstract submission is Friday, 4 August 2023 5pm AEST.

Abstracts will be reviewed by the 2023 Annual Scientific Meeting judging panel and will be selected using criteria such as:

- Content: how does the abstract relate to the wider context of the O&G specialty
- Abstract Design: is the design appropriate for the aims of the abstract
- Scientific Rigour: does the abstract meet and exceed the threshold of scientific rigour
- Written Quality: is the abstract well written and understood
- Originality: is the abstract original in idea
- Delegate Engagement: will it encourage discussion amongst delegates

All papers must be submitted by the presenting author. All correspondence will be sent to the submitting author by email. Only one author per abstract can be nominated as the 'presenting author'

Please note: Changes of author are not permitted, with the exception of special circumstances, which will be considered by the Committee Chair.

. Please note that all presenters on the program must register for the meeting and pay the appropriate registration fee by the early bird deadline. It will be assumed any presenter not registered by this date has withdrawn their abstract from the program.

Abstracts may be submitted in the following areas of interest:

- General Gynaecology
- General Obstetrics
- Gynaecological Oncology
- Maternal Fetal Medicine
- Obstetrical and Gynaecological Ultrasound

  - b. Structure of abstract for case studies
    - i. Background
    - ii. Aims
    - iii. Case
    - iv. Results
    - v. Discussion
- 4. Spelling and Grammar: All abstracts should be written in English and thoroughly checked for spelling and grammar before submission. Use standard abbreviations only; place any unusual abbreviations in brackets after the word appears for the first time within the body of the abstract, abbreviations may be used thereafter.
- 5. Layout and Format:
  - a. Each abstract must be prepared in Microsoft Word. No other formats will be accepted. If you submit in another format, your abstract will be rejected.
  - b. The title of the abstract should be written in title case.
  - c. As abstracts are anonymously reviewed, please DO NOT include authors and affiliations in the abstract document itself. You can enter these details into the relevant fields within the online abstract submission portal.
  - d. Please refrain from using printed enhancements such as italics, under lining, bold text etc. Italics may be used for non-English words or scientific names where necessary.
  - e. Figures, tables, charts, and graphs are not permitted in the initial abstract submission.
  - f. Please ensure results are detailed within the abstract (abstracts must not state 'results will be presented at the meeting') and appropriate statistical tests have been used and reported. Abstracts presented without results will not be accepted.
  - g. Sources of funding should be indicated at the bottom of the abstract, as applicable.
  - h. Use generic names of drugs, where applicable.
  - i. References should be avoided or, if essential, should be kept to a minimum and presented in Vancouver (numbered) style. Note that all references will be included in the maximum abstract length (250 word total).
  - j. Please note abstracts may be re-formatted and edited for publication in the program handbook.

6. Changes to Final Abstract

Any necessary changes to your abstract must be made by the final submission date. Edits cannot be accepted after the submission deadline.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

All abstracts must be submitted electronically via the online Abstract Submission Portal by the presenting author. The online portal can be accessed via this link.

Authors wishing to submit more than one abstract may do so by clicking 'New Abstract' in the Presenter Portal. Please avoid submission of several abstracts generated from the same study.

- Only one author per abstract can be nominated the 'presenting author.' If you are the presenting author and do not register for the 2023 Annual Scientific Meeting, you will be deemed to have withdrawn from the program. Authorship is not transferrable to another person.
- All submissions must be accompanied by a maximum 80-word biographical paragraph of the presenting author. Biographical details will be used by the session Chair for introductions purposes and may also be published in 2023 Annual Scientific Meeting literature and on the Meeting App.
- Submission of abstracts implies the author's agreement to publish the abstract in the 2023 Annual Scientific Meeting Handbook/Meeting App and other RANZCOG literature as applicable.
- Abstracts accepted for Free Communication and Poster presentations may be provided upon request to media outlets promoting a specific presentation. Please note that submission of abstracts implies the author's consent.
- If a study has been presented elsewhere before the 2023 Annual Scientific Meeting, it is not eligible for submission as an abstract.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

Please note that all accepted presenters on the program must register for the 2023 Annual Scientific Meeting and pay the appropriate registration fee by Friday, 29 September 2023.

Please ensure the following required information is available before beginning the online abstract submission process:

- Your contact details.
- The title of your abstract.
- Name and organisation of your co-author/s, if applicable.
- Your (the presenting author's) brief biography (maximum 80 words). Biographies are to be written in full sentences (not dot points) and in third person.
- Your abstract prepared in the format specified under Abstract Preparation Guidelines. Failure to meet the specified deadlines or guidelines may result in exclusion from the program.
